EXEMPLES OF PROFILE

It is during the race that each team chooses to do or not to do a race section.

No need to declare in advance in a profile category or another.

No need to decide in advance which race sections you plan to attend or not.

The color profiles are just here to bring a board, an indication.

And you decide during the race, to choose the race sections you want to do.

All the teams are ranked in the same ranking with a compensated time system.

The color of each section takes into account the difficulty, but also its position in the relevant stage, and our desire to discover a « big adventure race » to the discoverers teams.

These color codes "profile" are made to highlight to the discoverers teams (and to a lower degree seasoned teams) regarding their choice to do or not a particular test/section.
